

EAHAD Psychosocial Professionals Working Group

Call for Applications: Social Worker

EAHAD is inviting a social worker active in the haemophilia and bleeding disorders field to join its Psychosocial Professionals Working Group. The position is for a three-year term that would begin in 2020.

If you are interested in applying, please send a short letter of motivation (maximum 300 words) outlining why you wish to be a part of the working group. Please also include in the letter the following information:

- Full name
- Haemophilia Treatment Centre you are affiliated with
- Number of years working with people with bleeding disorders
- Whether you work with children, adults, or both
- Specific areas of interest in the field of bleeding disorders

Please send your letter to info@eahad.org by Monday 13 January 2020. It will be carefully considered by the current members to select the applicant whose profile and motivations best fit with the working group's current composition.

Please note that in order to be considered for a place on the Psychosocial Professionals Working Group, you must:

- be a registered social worker,
- be able to speak and read English at an intermediate or higher level, and
- be working in haemophilia-related services and preferably be participating in advanced psychosocial activities

Psychosocial Professionals Working Group membership offers an opportunity to contribute to the development and implementation of psychosocial and inter-professional EAHAD projects and events, including the Multidisciplinary Pre-Congress Day. Members of the Psychosocial Professionals Working Group are expected to actively participate in the work of the group, including attending 2-3 in-person committee meetings per year. We estimate the average amount of work required to fulfill these duties is ½ day per month.

For more information on the work of the Working Group, please click here.

Should you have any questions about the application process, please do not hesitate to contact Angelos Athanasopoulos at angelos.athan@eahad.org.